In future I want to become a mechanic for aeroplanes and I also want to become a great player of the cornet. But earlier before I was insane. I had almost gone mad on streets of Kampala, as I was sniffing glue and taking alcohol, I don't remember much about my past life, but my life was changed when I met Uncle Bosco on the streets after then I was brought to M-lisada home and started learning to play the cornet. I don't want to be a mad person again on the streets of Kampala, now I know that I deserve much after getting a good education just like the people I used to see in their vehicles with their families on the roads of Kampala. I want to become a good aeroplane mechanic.
