

NAME. KALEMA FRANK.

VILLAGE. NSAMBYA.

AGE. 18 YEARS

After losing my father, my mother shifted and started living in Nsambya together with me. But she got married to another man who became to hate me a very day. When my mother found it out that my step father didn't like me she took me to the village and started living with my grandmother who started to mistreat me including denying me food. And when mother took long without bringing money to the village, grandmother started threatening to kill me. Many times my grandmother gave me corporal punishments which always made me feel a lot of pain. One day after my grandmother severely bet me up I was taken to the hospital where I was admitted and after a got a little better the M-lisada leaders paid the hospital bills and brought me to their home where I met other children and right now after learning the brass band iam the leader of the brass band and I like to instruct my younger brothers and sisters to play music and it makes very proud always, right now I have a grade three music certificate in the trumpet (ABRSM). I want to be a music professor in future.
